

Huusier PaluuzA: A UU Revival!

Saturday, September 18, 2010

2-10 pm

UU Church of Indianapolis
615 W. 43rd St.

Celebrate the “big tent”
of our faith!

Nationally-known UU speaker Rev. Meg Barnhouse

Barnhouse grew up in North Carolina and Philadelphia, and she has lived in Spartanburg, SC since 1981. Graduate of Duke University and Princeton Theological Seminary, she worked as Chaplain to Converse College for six years, teaching Public Speaking, Human Sexuality, World Religions, and other courses. Meg has been active in the community, helping to found the SAFE Homes Network for battered women. She is credentialed as a Fellow in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors.

Meg travels nationwide as a speaker, singer/songwriter and humorist. Meg is the mother of two wise, funny and handsome sons, ages 17 and 20. She has a second-degree black belt in karate, and is a commentator for NC Public Radio on a segment called "Radio Free Bubba." She has also been heard on National Public Radio's "Weekend All Things Considered," written numerous books, and recorded several original albums.

SCHEDULE

2-5 pm: Intergenerational Family Activities will combine creativity and spirituality to highlight UU principles (schedule TBA):

- Community painting with Jackie Wyatt and Indianapolis artists
- Rhythm Circle with Sally Childs-Helton
- Chants and Rounds with Pam Blevins Hinkle
- Liturgical Dance with Nina Ryan
- Indigo Dyeing with Stephanie Robertson
- Cairn Building with Rev. Amy Kindred

4:30-5 pm: Youth-Led, Intergenerational Worship Service

5-6 pm: Cobalt and the Hired Guns, a boot-stompin', tambourine-shakin', irresistibly genuine good time from Chicago

6-7 pm: Community Picnic. Bring a picnic dinner for your family--and bring an extra sandwich to welcome a guest. Eat at tables and chairs under the big tent or bring a blanket and sit on the grass. Please be "green" (supply your own dishware) and supply your own coolers (no refrigeration available).

7-10 pm: A revival-style evening that creatively blends firebrand preaching, music, and humor. Featuring:

- song-writer, speaker and humorist Rev. Meg Barnhouse
- Rev. Bill Breeden (UU Bloomington)
- Rev. Stephen Sinclair (UU of Indianapolis).
- Gospel-Style Choir, led by Pam Blevins Hinkle
- Plus special guest musicians and energetic congregational singing.

2-10 p.m. Art Exhibit by artists in all Central Indiana UU congregations.
